BERKELEY—

PIEDMONT.

BERKELEY, May 22.—The Town Trustees are going to hold another meeting to consider the passage of the anti-labor law. At the regular meeting last night Trustee Turner stated that he had been informed by a number of temperance people that in case the liquor ordinance is passed they will make good the amount which the town would lose by being deprived of the license revenue. As the financial position is the principal obstacle in the passage of the ordinance, it was decided to hold a conference with the prohibitionists Monday evening next.

Marshall Lloyd requested the Board to allow him to appoint a deputy to serve in the southern part of town, but no action was taken. The reappointment of Deputy Trustees Brown and Kerns was confirmed.

A Peralt Plow Company was granted a horse and harness, certain plumbing was ordered in the Lottin house, and a request from the North Berkeley Company for additional supplies was referred to President McLean.

On the score of economy the Board decided to reduce the number of street lights from 112 to 60 until further notice. Resolutions of intention to amend articles on the following streets were adopted: Arch, Fremont, London, Mill, Pine, Oxford, Walnut, Grove, Hillcrest, and Broadway. Resolutions to sidewalk Park and Sixth streets, to build a bridge across Strawberry creek at Second street, and to alter the construction of sidewalks on Alameda and Bristol streets were also passed.

It was decided to take steps toward the grading and macadamizing of College avenue from Dwight way to the south town line on the district plan. A communication from the railroad asking that a cut-off be constructed at Third and Holyoke streets instead of at Third and Virginia was referred to President Marshall. The Street Superintendent was instructed to notify property owners that they must lay a cement sidewalk on the east side of Shattuck avenue, between Dwight and Channing ways.

Ordinances regarding grades on College avenue and prohibiting expression from soliciting within fifty feet of Berkeley station were passed to print.

The Board then adjourned until next Monday evening.

MERRILL'S ELECTION CONTEST.—Clarence S. Merrill, the defeated candidate for Town Trustee from the Third ward, late yesterday afternoon filed a contest against the election of E. Q. Turner, who was declared elected at the polls by a majority of eleven votes. The contest has some peculiar features, as Mr. Merrill states that he hopes Trustee Turner will retain his seat, but in view of the closeness of the vote he deems it his duty to have a recount.

The proceedings will be held June 6th in Judge Edgeworth's court.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.—The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Trinity M. E. Church met this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Oliver, 128 Bancroft way. Miss Sophia Blackmore, for ten years engaged in mission work at Singapore, delivered an interesting address.

ABOUT TOWN.—The Telephone Company has decided to remove its office in the building on Shattuck avenue, between Bancroft way and Kirtland street.

T. H. Welch of 215 Vine street has been granted a pension of $9 per month.

The funeral of Thos. Driver, who died Sunday morning, took place this afternoon from the late residence, 120 Shattuck street. The interment was at Mountain View.

Vacation at the State Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind commences June 11th and ends August 23rd.

The new house warden of the North Berkeley Plow Company has been received.

The Junior Red Cross Society of West Berkeley holds a social meeting at 2300 Oakleaf tomorrow afternoon at 7 o'clock at University avenue.

PIEDMONT.—Mr. Morse has opened a floral depot at the cemetery entrance, where all kinds of floral decorations can be had.

Heron & McNamee have just completed a new residence on Howe street.

The Oakland Transit Company has adopted a new method in sprinkling the roadbed of its system. Previously one of the large cars had to haul the big sprinker over the road, as it had no motors to supply its own power. Now it is supplied by two large motors under the tracks, and the roadbed of the system is sprinkled daily with salt water pumped from Lake Merritt.

Miss Marie L. McDermott, whose engagement to Austin L. Walton of San Francisco was announced in last evening's Tribune, is well known here, where she has many friends. She lived here for many years prior to the burning of the McDermott property a few years ago. Miss McDermott taught school for awhile in Piedmont, and on her return graduated from the University.

BIKE RIDERS AND THE LAW.

Waiting for the Council to Settle the Issue.

It is interesting to watch the conduct of bicycle riders pending the decision upon some ordinance by the Council which will regulate the use of bicycles upon the sidewalks or streets of this city. The agitation has evidently had a good effect as very few arrests have been made lately.

The ordinance that will probably be recommended for passage by the committee at Wednesday night's meeting has reduced the maximum fine from $10 to $5 and suggested to $5. Some of those who have watched the matter carefully fear that it is a bad move. They feel that some more reckless riders will take chances with the law for $5 but for $10 they would be more careful. In this particular point there is much to be thought.

It is understood that should the ordinance be passed pending under

SAN PABLO SOON TO HAVE NEW LINE.

Street car service has been abandoned on San Pablo avenue in order to lay the tracks for the new electric line. The cable road system has been permanently done away with. It will take about six weeks to complete the new line. A force of 200 men are at work upon it. The cable used by the old road was nearly 200 feet in length.

During the interruption of traffic on San Pablo avenue the Southern Pacific Company has doubled its service on other lines. It is probable that a permanent bus service will be maintained while the work of reconstruction is going on.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH THE JURY'S VERDICT

Coroner Mehrmann held an inquest last evening on the remains of the man who was killed by the train Sunday at St. George station. The jury brought in a verdict of accidental death.

As no light has been thrown upon the man's identity, a photograph of the remains will be taken today, after which they will be interred at the county's expense.

WHO MADE THE GOAT CRAZY?

MRS. KEITH IS THE GOAT TELLS AFTER THE U. C. OF DECISION OF COLLEGE BOYS. THE MONKEY.

"Who made the goat crazy?" That is a question that is disturbing the students of the State University.

"Who threw acid on the animals at the dog show?"

Mrs. William Keith, wife of the artist, says the students did it. The story in brief is that at an annual show given in Berkeley the U. C. students raised havoc. It is asserted that the boys threw acid on the animals and broke up the show.

MRS. KEITH'S STORY.

Mrs. William Keith gives her version of the affair as follows: "And to show the evil effect upon the students of such brutalizing spectacles, this deed was followed a week later by unmanly conduct (as we have been informed by eye-witnesses) on the part of a squad of U. C. students who attacked the dog and pony show of Norris Brothers on Shattuck avenue. By their actions they deprived the audience of an interesting exhibition which they had paid their money to see, and if a timely knowledge of the facts had come into the possession of any Berkeley member of the Humane Society many arrests would have been made. The manager of the show declared that he had traveled in many States of the Union, but had never before suffered from such conduct. This was the first time he had been treated in this manner. The dogs and horses, injured then and frightened them so that they could not perform, and the performing goat went into a violent spasm at the close of the performance, which had been a disaster. The girls, on the other hand, and high spirits generally created a scene of uproar and disturbance."

"As in all on-educational colleges, the students of the U. C. in general maintain a high character with respect to morality. It is much to their credit that Berkeley has suffered so little from the lack of a police force. They give no such wholesale exhibitions of rowdiness as we occasionally hear of as occurring at Yale, Harvard, Oxford and Cambridge."

"We do not know whether a knowledge of the events at Norris Brothers' show came to the ears of the U. C. authorities, or whether, if it had, they would have judged it to be within their jurisdiction to remove the said students. But, figuratively speaking, we know that when students throw acid on the professors they are expelled from the U. C., and no less a punishment should be inflicted in the first mentioned case."

"Two young men, Masters and Dohm, have been dismissed from the U. C. We are not assuming, at the present moment, to criticize the action of the authorities in the matter of the Blue and Gold, but in all cases and speaking generally, we hold the opinion that, presuming them to exist, it is not the publishing of the shortcomings, faults or misdeeds, of those connected with a public institution which injures such institution. It is the existence of such vices, or of faults and the fact of such misdeeds. This is to be dreaded. This is to be deplored. This is to be prevented. So say all who have at heart the highest and truest interests of Alma Mater."

WHAT A STUDENT SAYS.

M. C. Graydon, a student, makes the following defense: "The lady states the goat went into a violent spasm and that acid was thrown on the dogs and horses. In the first place, lest these malicious rumors gain too much ground, I wish to say that acid was brought to the circus. The substance of such was put on the goat was carbon bisulphide, and any one who knows its properties is well aware that it could do no harm to any animal. It is a very white liquid and when placed on anything evaporates rapidly, leaving the spot extremely cold, and for the space, the ignorance of the bystander is no excuse for such maliciousness. To sum up, no acid was thrown and no animals were injured."

"M. C. GRAYDON, U. C. Student."

WHAT THE GOAT SAYS.

The following communication signed "The Goat" and giving the decision of the monkey has been received: "The Norris Bros' Dog Show, En route, May 19, 1899.

"Dear Friend:—I wonder if the U. C. students who attended our show ever spare time for their study of chemistry to read Kipling. You know he has written about our burdens as well as those of the white man.

"The bones of many of our animals lie bleaching on the sands of the Cuban and Philippine Islands. Before giving up their lives for their country they often sang that refrain of

"ALL THE BEASTS TOGETHER."

"Children of the Camp are we.

Serving each in his degree.

Children of the pole and goad.

Pack and harness, pad and load."

"The song of the 'Cavalry Horses' was also a favorite.

"By the brand on my withers, the finest of tunes.

Is played by the Lancers, Hussars and Dragoons."

And it's sweeter than 'Stables' or 'Water' to me, The Cavalry Center of 'Bonnie Dundee'.

"Then feed us, and break us, and handle, and groom, And give us good riders add plenty of room, And launch us on column of squadrons and see The war of the war-horse to Bonnie Dundee."

"A little bird keeps us informed of all the news, and we have been much interested in the U. C. student's defense of his colleagues. Tell him we regret them for highlighting us, and to death we who are always so patient and uncomplaining, and he should not accuse the audience of maliciousness in reporting that acid was thrown."

"The ignorant bystander to whom he refers proved merely that they were more ignorant of chemistry than they were of good manners when they used the popular term 'acid.' You write that there were men and women present, willing if necessary to give their names, whose knowledge of chemistry can stand the test of a U. C. 12, and that they are asking what right the U. C. students had to throw anything on the animals?"

"But boys will be boys, and we forgive much to thoughtless youth. How soon it passes. It wasn't very nice of them though to usurp all the reserved seats, both people and those shown in themselves are cruel—but then, one must live."

"The day after the show we animals convened. In council, as we felt that some action should be taken in the matter."

"A committee was appointed to make a report as to the exact nature of the liquid which was thrown upon us. Quite an animated discussion took place, and the old monkey who is reputed to understand his subject, explained to us that carbon bisulphide belongs to the class of acid sulphides, or sulphur hydrides, and is highly explosive when its vapor is mixed with air. He said that extreme heat and cold are alike in their effects on the animal tissue, and that the too rapid passage of either in either direction is more than a boy can stand. It is a great ignorance of chemistry was displayed in general. The lady, of whom nothing better could be expected, thought that the very white liquid was milk, but we older ones knew that milk cannot be regarded as a definite chemical compound."

"One of our ponies, a great temperance crank, declared it was nothing more harmful than hydrogen monoxide (H<sub>2</sub>O) while the most bibulous old dog of us all subtly maintained and tried to prove that it was propenyl alcohol (C<sub>3</sub>H<sub>7</sub>O) and with howls lamented the waste of good liquor. One said Polyacid Hydride, another Phenyldibenzamide; but we abide by the decision of the monkey. I nearly forgot to add that I received a vote of censure for having been so foolish as to go into a spasm."

"THE GOAT."

ELMHURST.

ELMHURST, May 22.—Archie Stewart, who drives a wagon for the Oakland Botting Company, had an exciting experience yesterday which might have resulted in his death. He was returning from a picnic at Piedmont, driving a spirited team with a load of empty bottles. About a mile from the picnic grounds, as he was driving down a grade, the horses became unmanageable and dashed down the hill. When the foot of the incline was reached one of the horses fell and was killed. The wagon came to a sudden stop, precipitating the driver under the horses' feet. Some parties who witnessed the accident rushed to the assistance of Stewart, and dragged him from the entangled mass. It was found that he had sustained a broken ankle and several bruises upon his body. He also suffered from some internal injuries. Friends removed him to his home in Oakland.

UNDER CHARGE OF PERJURY.

Berkeleyan in Trouble in Humboldt County.

John Woolley of Berkeley is in trouble. He has been held to answer to the Superior Court in Eureka, Humboldt county, on the charge of perjury. The charge grew out of testimony of Woolley in the divorce suit of his daughter, who is now Mrs. Thomas Langford. Langford is suing for divorce from his wife, and in a previous hearing of the case Woolley testified, it is alleged, that he had heard Langford speak about paying off a mortgage on Mrs. Langford's property, when it is also claimed, Woolley had said that he knew nothing of the financial transaction and so expressed himself in a letter to Langford, which was introduced in evidence.

Mrs. Langford was formerly Mrs. Mattie A. McShane, widow of Mr. McShane, the junior member of the dry goods firm of Kennedy & McShane, which was formerly in business at the southwest corner of Broadway and Thirteenth street.

In November, 1897, McShane died at his home on Chouteau street, near Dwight way, Berkeley. He was found dead in his room, with gas escaping from a jet in the same apartment. He had evidently been asphyxiated, but the verdict of the coroner's jury was that death had resulted from accidental causes.

In August of the following year, 1898, his widow married Langford, somewhat to the surprise of her friends in Berkeley.

Langford, as the testimony in the case shows, was on a trip to Berkeley, and while sitting on Mrs. McShane and discussing the marriage of friends she said: "What would people say if we got married?" Both had children and agreed to pool incomes for family support. Langford, it is alleged, agreeing to pay off a mortgage on Mrs. McShane's property. They were married and went to Eureka, where Langford runs a machine shop. After about two months the couple separated. Mrs. Langford brought suit for divorce on the ground of cruelty, and Langford sued for the recovery of the $6,000 used to pay off the mortgage on Mrs. Langford's property. Mrs. Langford filed a cross-complaint for $1,000. In the trial Woolley, Mrs. Langford's father, gave the testimony which led to his arrest on perjury.

Woolley and Mrs. Langford at present are at their home in Berkeley. Langford is prominent in Eureka and the case is bitterly contested. The petition of Mrs. Langford in the divorce suit for an allowance was denied, as she is possessed of more property than Langford. The divorce and other pending suits have not yet been decided. At the time of his arrest Woolley was in Berkeley in charge of a deputy sheriff.

SCHURMAN'S STATEMENT.

Government Offered
Rebels Better Than
Their Own.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says:

President Schurman of the Philippine Commission has made this statement concerning the plan of government offered to the Filipinos:

"Now that the American arms are successfully bringing the war to a close, it is an opportune moment to submit the scheme of government which is authorized by the President, who believes that conciliation is as necessary as force."

"The present scheme should satisfy the legitimate aspirations of the Filipino people for participation in their own government. It gives the insurgents a good opportunity to lay down their arms.

"Under it they will possess more freedom than under the Malolos government, even though the latter declares them an independent and sovereign State."

THE NEGRO PROBLEM.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, May 23.—At the banquet of the Congressional Club last night at the Palmer House representatives of the colored race discussed the problem of the negro in the South. The Rev. L. B. Maxwell of Savannah, Prof. R. V. Taylor of Tuskegee University and Mrs. Ida Wells Barnett were the colored speakers who pleaded for the education and protection of the negro.

The Rev. L. B. Maxwell's address was entitled "The White Man's Burden," and set forth the mission of Congressionalism to the negro. Referring to the elective franchise, the speaker said that those who contended that it should have an educational basis were not far apart from the negro in that view. Said Mr. Maxwell: "All we ask is an equal standard for all."

President J. C. K. McClure of Lake Forest University, in the course of his address on the "Burden of the Black Man," said that the solution of the problem was in the determination of the will of the colored people. He said the colored man should not be asking "Where are my rights?" nor should we let him, but "What do I owe to society?" Thus would he elevate himself.

Prof. Taylor said that whether the burden was the white man's or the black man's made little difference. The divine injunction, "Bear ye one another's burdens," would, if obeyed, lighten both.

At the conclusion of this discussion Mrs. Ida Wells Barnett spoke on the Southern landings, pleading for the enforcement of the laws, equally for blacks and whites.

RAILROAD TO THE KLONDIKE

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
ST. LOUIS, May 23.—R. P. Elliott, an active mine owner of Dawson City, is stopping at the Plummer's Hotel, Mr. Elliott has just returned to the United States after an absence of nearly a year and a half, which he has spent in the gold fields of the Klondike. He is full of enthusiasm over the new country. He left Dawson City in March, and will return late in the year, he said.

"The Yukon and White Pass Railway is now completed from Skagway to the summit of the pass, a distance of about eighteen miles, and for a distance of about twelve miles further the road-bed is ready for the rails. The grading is being done right up to within a few miles of Bennett, and by July 1st the management expects to have trains running between Skagway and Bennett, where the passengers can take a steamer to White Horse Rapids, thence by the railway around the rapids, about four miles in length, to the other side, where they can take a steamer direct to Dawson. When connections are made, the trip from Seattle to Dawson can be made in from ten to twelve days. It will be a wonderful trip."

Wants Pay for Goods

Philip Kolb has brought suit to recover $700.00 from Andrew McDowell, alleged to be due for goods delivered and money loaned.

ENGLAND OUR STANCH FRIEND.

What Most Impressed
Bishop Whipple
Abroad.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—Right: Rev. Dr. Henry Benjamin Whipple, Episcopal Bishop of Minnesota, who has just returned from England, said to a Tribune reporter:

"The most remarkable thing I noticed in England was the friendly spirit manifested in every quarter toward our country and with it a great desire to learn more about the organization of the missionary work of our own branch of the church."

"There has been a good deal of talk in England and elsewhere about the crisis in the churches of England on questions of ritual. I believe that all this is to be settled by the wise counsel of the bishops. A council of advice was in session presided over by the Archbishop of Canterbury and York, to which all these questions are presented by representatives of the different schools, and I thought I detected in all minds a conviction that the goodly counsel and advice of the bishops would be followed."

"Just the question which was mostly prominent and of which I saw most was that connected with Christian work at home and abroad. I think that the great heart of England realizes, as it has never realized before, that God has placed the English-speaking races in the forefront of humanity, representatives of constitutional government and Christian civilization, to carry their benefits to all the people of the earth, and underlying their desire for a closer relation with the United States was the thought that we had a common work and a common mission to do for humanity."

"There is a good deal of talk about the Peace Congress, but so far as I could judge the attitude was one of hopefulness that out of this meeting the horrors of war would be mitigated if not entirely done away with. Educated Englishmen give the Czar of Russia credit for the highest motives in proposing the conference."

In response to an inquiry as to how the English clergy regarded the Briggs controversy, Bishop Whipple said they did not know anything about it. He said that he had not heard the subject mentioned. Asked about his opinion of the Briggs case, he said:

"I have not read Dr. Briggs' book, and consequently could not criticize it intelligently, but I will say that I have the utmost confidence in Bishop Potter, whom I have known through all of his ministry. He never loses his head. In every line of his behavior he is loyal to his master and to the church of which he is the chief shepherd."

"This question which agitates so many minds is not a new question. The Bible is a very wonderful book. It was two thousand years ago that the first chapter was written before it was finished. It was not gathered together until 1,500 years after the last author died. During these years of its history, theories of medicine and government and science have been turned and overturned again and again. The Bible has been in the past, and will be in the future, the revelation of the gracious purposes of God to his children and the story of his infinite love."

"There is a divine element in the sacred Scriptures which it is impossible that any human theory or human investigation can ever touch. A devout Christian need not have the slightest doubt of anxiety over critical scholarship. Truth does not fear investigation, and I am sure that it will be in the future as it has been in the past that not one iota of God's truth and His revelation can ever be affected by honest examination. Dr. Briggs has received much praise from scholars of different communions, even of the Roman Catholic Church, and it is only fair to believe him when he declares that from his heart he accepts the creed and the doctrine of the church."

Bishop Whipple said that Indian affairs, in which he has been interested for forty years, are in a more hopeful condition today than they ever have been. "The standard of government employment in the Indian service is much higher than formerly, and the department at Washington exhibits a deep interest in the work."

BIG DEBTS WIPE OUT

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, May 23.—Debts aggregating several million dollars were wiped out in a few minutes in the United States District Court by order of Judge Kohlsaat. Among the bankrupts discharged were Moses S. and Henry N. Greenbaum, building contractors in the Fox Dearborn building. Moses Greenbaum's individual debts were placed at $204,000, and his assets at $21,000. Henry's individual liabilities were $230,000, and his assets $11,000. The partnership debts amounted to $12,700, and the assets $21,000. The liabilities and assets of some of the others who were discharged followed:

Frank Hess, who formerly had a department store, liabilities $151,000, assets $18,000.

Clarence L. Cross and Alpheus S. Badger, former lumber manufacturers, liabilities $122,000, assets $23,000.

Orders of discharge were also entered in forty-eight other individual cases.

NEGRO KILLS AN OFFICER.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, May 23.—In endeavoring to carry out the order of his superior officers to place under arrest all colored men found carrying weapons without permits—an order which was due to the killing of two colored men and the wounding of a third yesterday morning—Policeman James P. Sheehan of the Twenty-second street station was shot in the abdomen early today, receiving a wound that may prove fatal.

Sheehan and some other policemen were arresting four colored men, when one of them, Ed Hammer, broke away and ran. Sheehan pursued him. Hammer turned and fired. The policeman dropped to the ground. Hammer was followed by companions of Sheehan, who arrested him and took him to the station. Hammer's three comrades were locked up, too.

SHAMROCK'S CREW IS PICKED OUT.

Nothing Irish About
the Yacht But Her Name.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
BOSTON, May 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from Glasgow says:

The skippers, under officers and crew have been definitely selected for the Shamrock, and all told they will make twenty-five men. Archie Hogarth will be in charge, with Captain Wringe as assistant sailing master. Rowe, who was first mate of the Britannia, will be chief officer, and Stewart, who was mate on the Astrild, will be second officer, with Messrs. Croker and Livingston, third and fourth officers respectively. The other appointments are one boatswain, two boatswain's mates, two carpenters, two sailmakers, nine leading hands, including masthead and bowsprit and men, twenty-six ordinary seamen, two stewards and two cooks.

A sizing up of the crew shows a few Scotch and English—twenty-nine English sailors and twenty-one Scotch. The selections were made from the best men available, so, except the name, which will be painted on the stern, there is nothing Irish or an Irishman on board of her, and the name Shamrock, in view of all these facts, in no way indicates what she was intended to be, an "Irish boat," and no one here for one moment claims it.

At this calling neither Sir Thomas Lipton nor the Royal Yacht Club people know definitely the exact day of the launching of the Shamrock, though from good authority it is stated it will be on June 5 or 6, just two days ahead of the Columbia.

The launch invitations have not been issued yet. Secretary in connection with the Shamrock is even keener than before, as the Thornycrofts want to drop her into the Thames without the knowledge of any one, and they have had two piers built with a fence on each side so that no broadside snapshot can be had. The Shamrock will be slid down on the ways with a canvas covering, a sly enough performance.

"There is no question that confidence in gaining her, and the present belief is that the Shamrock will make the best bid for the cup of any challenger. Of late Sir Thomas Lipton shows a more confident feeling than he had in the early stages of the controversy. His friends encourage him in the belief that he has every chance to win. Whatever opposition he had met in certain high-toned yachting quarters about his building a yacht for the cup has for the most part faded out, and his pluck in building the Shamrock is now commended."

The Valkyrie III is still moored in Gourock harbor, and there are no signs of fitting her out.

EXTRAORDINARY COURT MARTIAL.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says:

"The War Department has received from the Philippines the official record of a remarkable trial by court martial of an officer who has escaped conviction on a charge of a grave character in a manner that is not one iota of God's truth and His revelation can ever be affected by honest examination. Dr. Briggs has received much praise from scholars of different communions, even of the Roman Catholic Church, and it is only fair to believe him when he declares that from his heart he accepts the creed and the doctrine of the church."

Under the first charge it was specified that Captain Jeffrey while on duty at Manila had "plundered his post to pillage and plunder, in violation of the forty-second article of war," and for conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. Under the first charge it was specified that Captain Jeffrey while on duty at Manila on night in February left his post and entered the house of a native, against her protest, and appropriated household furniture, silverware, jewelry, etc., to the value of about $80, which he divided among the private soldiers with him. The specifications under the second charge describe him then appearing in an intoxicated condition among the men and offering them liquor, etc. Just how he was acquitted does not appear, but he was found not guilty, and that is the end of the affair so far as the authorities here are concerned. Captain Jeffrey is a native of Canada, and was appointed to the volunteer army from Illinois in May, 1898.

BURNED HER MANUSCRIPT.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
MELROSE, Mass., May 23.—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the noted lecturer and literary woman, is falling in health, and at times she tells her friends she thinks the end is very near. Since Mrs. Livermore's health began failing she has ordered that all her manuscripts be burned. This burning of the literary material has already taken place. Mrs. Livermore is not well enough to see any visitors, but she confirmed the report of the burning of her writings. She said:

"I am sure that I burned all my accumulation of manuscript—a bushel of it or more—but I did not consider it of any value, and I did not care to leave it behind me when the end should come."

NAVAL VACANCIES.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—It is reported that Perry S. Heath, Assistant Postmaster General, and his brother, Fletcher Heath, have negotiated for and practically acquired a controlling interest in the stock of the Seventh National Bank of this city. In addition to this report it is further rumored that they are on the point of assuming control of the bank as a result of their reported purchases of the stock.

Officers of the bank refuse to speak of the matter. The bank's capital is $200,000. The last bid price per share of its stock was 100. The bank has a surplus of about $100,000. Its statement also shows loans of $1,700,000, deposits of $2,200,000 and undivided profits amounting to $10,000.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

OUR DUTIES TO PORTO RICANS.

General Henry Urges
That We Educate
Them.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—Speaking before the Colonial Aid Society, General Guy V. Henry, late Governor of Porto Rico, compared the Porto Ricans to the North American Indians, saying nothing was done for the Indians until they began to cause the Government trouble. He said in part:

"Porto Rico is the only one of our acquired possessions which has given us no trouble—coming to us willingly, anxious to be rid of the Spanish yoke of oppression. We should aid them in every possible way to become Americanized, which can only be by the adoption of our laws and methods and being educated. Upon the latter depends the success of the island. As only 14 per cent can read and write it will easily be seen how much there is seen in this direction to be done and the great responsibility put upon us to change this ignorance into intelligence. We must work with the children, they are bright and anxious to learn. The system of schools on paper is good—in practice poor, owing to the method of teaching. There are no school houses, children being taught in rooms where the teachers live. The latter are more than poorly paid, for the general complaint was of non-payment by municipalities. The island is divided into districts with an American in charge. At San Juan a part of the day's lesson is in English. At Ponce there is a school of some 300 children, taught by American ladies, but this is a drop in the bucket when we think of an island of nearly a million souls upon whom education would not be wasted, and is of vital importance. To put it practically, they need teachers paid by Americans, for they are poor and the island's money, as long as available, are needed badly for building roads, giving employment to the laborers, improving jails, hospitals, etc., and introducing necessary sanitary reforms."

"The characteristics of the Porto Ricans is most patient, uncomplaining suffering. I have never seen a beggar. They are proud and high spirited; they ask for work, never for alms. They have their faults, and we have ours; but under masters such as they have had for hundreds of years we would be worse, or at least no better."

PULLMAN TOWN WILL BE SOLD.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, May 23.—The final decree in the quo warranto proceedings against the Pullman Palace Car Company has been entered in the Circuit Court by Judge Baker. By its terms the company has five years in which to dispose of its holdings, that period being considered by Attorney-General Akin of Illinois the "reasonable time" provided for in the recent Supreme Court decision. The decree is a lengthy one of sixty type-written pages. By it Pullman's Palace Car Company has five years in which to dispose of 1200 residences in the model town, the sixteen acres of vacant lots in the town, and fifty acres of streets, alleys, and parks, the gas, water and sewerage works, the Hotel Florence, two churches, the theater, the Arcade building and the market hall.

The company is given one year in which to cease to exercise its municipal functions—that is, the operating of water, gas, steam, and sewerage plants. Within one year also it must dispose of the Pullman Iron and Steel Company.

The company will retain its car shops and surrounding 10 acres of ground, office buildings at Michigan avenue and Adams street, twenty-five acres of land on the belt railroad and fifty-five acres of land north of Pullman, held for extension purposes.

The company no longer owns the brickyard the Southern Palace Car Company, the Union Foundry and Wael Company, and 175 acres of land near Lake Calumet.

The brickyard passed out of the hands of the Pullman Company a year ago. The land south of Pullman was disposed of last summer to a syndicate which has plans for the erection of industrial concerns thereon. The Union Foundry Company and the Southern Palace Car Company stock was disposed of some time since.

PERRY HEATH A BANKER.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—It is reported that Perry S. ### CUSTOM HOUSE OUTRAGES.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
LONDON, May 23.—George W. Smalley, the New York correspondent of the Times, continues to denounce the methods of the Custom House Inspectors at the port of New York. He says in this part: "Americans returning from Europe are still treated as intentional smugglers. Mr. Dingley's personal luggage has not yet been repeated, and American women must still explain the cost of their underclothing, point out in which trunk it is to be found and stand by while customs and chemists are at work."

"There may have been some relaxation in the rigor of the inspection, but the system continues in force, bringing blushes not only to the cheeks of American women, but to those of all the Americans who care for the good name of their country. The imposition of bribery is confirmed by the dismissal of inspectors. Only by paying the inspectors can the returning New Yorker escape insult and outrage at the Custom House, and not always then."

INHERITANCE TAX ATTACKED.

Important Case Now
Before an Illinois
Court.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, May 23.—The constitutionality of the inheritance tax has been attacked in Judge Carter's court by the heirs of Albert M. Billings, who died two years ago, leaving an estate valued at $7,500,000, to be divided among his widow, Augusta, his son, C. K. G. Billings, and his grandson, Albert Billings Ruddebeck. The authorities taxed the estate, under the law, about $70,000.

Attorneys say that the decision of the higher court, after the rendering of the opinion of Judge Carter, will be awaited with interest, as the validity of the act has not been previously attacked on the grounds advanced.

Counsel for the heirs argue that the fact that the inheritance tax establishes a tax where the will provides that the remainder of the estate, after the death of the beneficiary, goes to a lineal descendant, while no tax is provided for where no provision for the disposal of the collateral remainder is made to take place after the death of the heir, makes it void, as in conflict with that part of the constitution of the State which provides that all privileges in the same classes shall be equally taxed.

The will of Mr. Billings provided that after the death of his son and grandson the part of the estate he had left them should be divided to their lineal heirs. Under the law the estate so disposed of is taxable, whereas if it had been left to the heirs without restrictions as to its disposal after their death and by them left to some institution or to persons out of the lineal line of descent it could not be taxed.

Judge Carter, after having listened to arguments, took the case under advisement. A decision will be rendered in a few weeks, and the case will be appealed to the higher courts by the defeated party.

CURRENCY BILL A COMPROMISE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, May 23.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

Advocates of currency reform are somewhat disappointed with the results of the deliberations of the Republican Caucus Committee appointed to formulate a legislative program. It had been hoped the members of this committee would agree upon a comprehensive scheme of currency and bank reform that would command the support of a majority of each house of Congress.

This committee was, however, confronted by the fact that whatever bill is carried through Congress must be put forward as a Republican party measure, and must have the support of practically the entire Republican membership in the House, where their majority is very small.

There were disagreements among the members of the committee themselves, and even those who were prepared to endorse the principle of the Indianapolis scheme were unable to get together as to details. The very moderate scheme agreed upon by the committee represents not only their judgment as to what they will be able to get through the House, but what they were able to agree upon themselves.

The program, however, is generally looked upon as a step in the right direction. It proposes to adopt definitely the gold standard by enacting into positive law what is now largely a matter of construction and precedent and making all the obligations of the United States payable in gold on demand. The proposition to reduce greenbacks only in exchange for gold will, if enacted, destroy the "endless chain" and prevent the same greenbacks being used time after time to withdraw gold from the treasury.

Only two propositions are made to increase the volume of national bank circulation. It is proposed to permit the national banks to issue notes up to the par value of their bonds and to permit the establishment of national banks of $25,000 capital in small towns. It is expected that the first of these will lead to a considerable increase in national bank circulation, as it will tend to increase the profits on note issues.

The proposed authorization of banks of small capital in small towns is to meet the complaint of committees in the South and West that they are compelled to do their banking in the large cities, and that the profits on this business are withdrawn from their neighborhoods.

There is no possibility of any ideal financial legislation being enacted by the Fifty-sixth Congress, and it is not improbable that even the moderate measure proposed by the caucus committee will fail.
